

Table of Contents

Contents		Page
Preface		i
Abbreviations		iii
Executive summary		v
Chapter 1: Introduction		1
1.1	Statutory provisions	1
1.2	Process of registration, importation, assessment and clearance of goods under Project imports	2
1.3	Trend of contracts registered and value of contracts	3
1.4	Customs Revenue under the Scheme	3
1.5	Sector wise Project Imports	4
Chapter 2: Rationale, objective, scope, sample, methodology and criteria for the Performance Audit		7
2.1	Rationale for Performance audit	7
2.2	Audit objectives	7
2.3	Audit Scope, Sample, Methodology and Criteria	8
Chapter 3 Adequacy of rules and provisions		11
3.1	Inconsistency in interpretation of statutory provisions	11
3.2	Absence of provisions for time-bound completion of projects	13
3.3	Multiple sponsoring authorities	15
3.4	Absence of provision in PIR for shifting of machinery	19
3.5	Conclusion	20
Chapter 4: Compliance to rules and procedures		21
4.1	Contracts finalised in absence of requisite documents	21
4.2	Inadmissible imports allowed under the scheme	23
4.3	Import of spares in excess of ceiling	24
4.4	Incorrect clearance of goods	25
4.5	Application of incorrect rate of duty	26
4.6	Loss of revenue due to non-levy of anti-dumping duty on import of rubber chemical	27
4.7	Incorrect rate of interest in ICES 1.5	28
4.8	Delay/non adjudication of SCN issued in Project Import cases	28
4.9	Non recovery of confirmed demands	30
4.10	Conclusion	31
Chapter 5: Facilitation of imports under Project Imports		33
5.1	Dwell time for goods cleared under Project Import	33
5.2	Inadequate facilitation and delays due to cumbersome documentation	34
5.3	Delay/non-finalisation of provisional assessment of BEs	36

Contents		Page
5.4	Delay/non-finalisation of project contracts	37
5.5	Transaction costs	39
5.6	Awareness of the Scheme	41
5.7	Conclusion	41
Chapter 6: Monitoring, co-ordination, and internal control		43
6.1	Project Import data management in EDI System	43
6.2	Inconsistency in databases of CBEC field formations	46
6.3	Monitoring of Bank Guarantee (BG) and Bond	49
6.4	Maintenance of records	51
6.5	Lack of co-ordination between inter-departmental authorities	52
6.6	Improper finalisation of contract ignoring additional contract	54
6.7	Conclusion	54
Chapter 7: Conclusion		55
	Appendices	57