(Referred to in Paragraph no 6.1.2.6)

Delayed action for recovery of outstanding dues as on 31 March 2005

(Rupees in crore)

Sl. No.	Name of the agency and Period	Amount outstanding (including interest)	Remarks
1	Anand Advertising. (1997-98) (DCS Delhi)	2.50	Agreement with the agency was not traceable. Bank guarantee given by the agency was allowed to lapse in March 2000. The agency did not pay Rs. 4.18 crore for the period February 1998 to September 1998. DD revised the commercial terms retrospectively and reduced it to Rs. 1.18 crore subject to payment by 19 October 1998 but still no payment was received. Again, a payment plan was approved subject to submission of bank guarantee. Without receiving the bank guarantee, the agency was allowed to telecast upto 17 January 1999 resulting in accumulation of dues of Rs. 1.39 crore on revised terms. Legal notice was issued only in July 2001. Thereafter, no action was taken.
2	Megna Vision (1997) (DCS Delhi)	1.28	For dues of 1997, legal notice was issued in January 2002, by which time the agency had disappeared. For invocation of arbitration proceedings, the case was initiated in May 2003 at Prasar Bharati level but no action was taken thereafter.
3	Maa Bozell (1993-97) (DCS Delhi)	2.26	For recovery of dues, a legal notice was issued in May 2001. The agency did not respond. Prasar Bharati followed up the case of recovery upto April 2003 but took no action thereafter.
4	Kine Scope (1998-99) (DCS Delhi)	2.48	An arbitrator appointed in September 2003 withdrew in November 2003.
5	Neerja Films (1999-2002) (DCS Delhi)	2.33	An arbitrator appointed in December 2003 withdrew in January 2004.
6	Media Asia (1995-97) (DCS Delhi)	1.22	Though accreditation of the agency was cancelled in November 1997, the court was approached in September 2000, for the appointment of an arbitrator. In the first hearing (August 2002), DD sought six weeks time to file the statement of claim. Extension of time was sought on 6 other occasions. On two occasions, fine was imposed. In May 2004, additional documents were filed. Fine was imposed for the delay. Additional documents were filed in July 2005 even after the matter was reserved for final award.
7	Prime Time Media (1996-2001) (DCS Delhi)	5.88	The agency defaulted in making payments 20 times during 1996-97, 79 times in 1997-98, 160 times in 1998-99, 32 times in 1999-2000, 122 times in 2000 but it was allowed to do business till outstanding dues accumulated to Rs. 3.46 crore (interest of Rs. 2.42 crore was also accrued upto April 2002).
8	MBM (2000) (DCS Delhi)	2.96	Credit facility of Rs. 1.11 crore was irregularly allowed to the agency. These dues are yet to be paid. In response to a legal notice issued in June 2001, the agency requested for appointment of an arbitrator. No action was taken thereafter.
9	Creative Eye Ltd. (1997-01) (DCS Delhi)	25.75	Though Rs. 2.26 crore was outstanding for the period from March 1997 to February 2000, a new agreement was entered into by DCS in March 2000 on it becoming a public ltd. company.
10	Film Craft (March 1999-October 2003) (DCS Delhi)	25.42	The agency defaulted in 1999. But the agency was allowed to do business. 80 cheques of Rs. 27.46 crore were dishonoured between April 2001 and October 2003. The department is now initiating the process for appointment of an arbitrator for recovering the dues.

Sl. No.	Name of the agency and Period	Amount outstanding (including interest)	Remarks
11	Drishti India (August 1995-December 1995) (DCS Delhi)	7.33	Though the agency was not paying the dues and its accreditation was cancelled in November 1995, yet it was allowed credit for the telecast of a film for which also Rs. 23 lakh was not paid. A legal notice was issued in January 2002 for dues of 1995. An arbitrator appointed by the DG in August 2003 withdrew in November 2003 and a new arbitrator was appointed through court in November 2004.
12	M/s AAML (DDK Kolkata)	32.89	Agency was allowed new programmes, though it had defaulted in making the payments.
13	M/s Radio TV commercials (DDK Mumbai)	1.54	The agency defaulted in 1994-95 but was given business upto 1999-2000.
14	M/s Film Craft (DDK Mumbai)	0.38	The firm failed to pay its dues for 1999-2000 to 2002-03, but was given business upto August 2004.
15	M/s Universal Communication (DDK Mumbai)	0.11	The firm did not pay its dues for July 1998 to September 2001, yet it was granted exclusive marketing rights of films from November 2001 to January 2004.
16	M/s Global Vision (DDK Mumbai)	0.32	Though a defaulter since August 2002, the firm was given business upto December 2003.
17	M/s Dellcom Advertising (DDK Guwahati)	0.29	The firm did not pay its dues from November 2000 to August 2001. Nevertheless, it was selected and paid Rs.9 lakh for commissioned programmes between March 2003 and August 2004.
18	M/s Time Shop Advertising and M/s PK Entertainment (DDK Mumbai)	0.28	M/s Time Shop Advertising had defaulted in payment of dues for the serial 'Kanamagun Aoli'. Its accreditation was cancelled and the serial was telecast by M/s PK Entertainment who was given provisional accreditation. The cheques submitted by the second agency also bounced.
	Total	115.22
